RE: Best Temps v. Brett Hoskins
C.A. No. S10A-02-002 RFS

Dear Counsel:

Upon Claimant Brett Hoskins' petition for disability benefits, the Industrial Accident Board awarded Hoskins total disability benefits for the period from June 20, 2008, through January 5, 2009. Employer appealed to this Court. Claimant filed a motion to dismiss the appeal, which I denied on May 21, 2010. A briefing schedule was then established. There has been no compliance with the briefing schedule, despite a delinquent notice from the judicial case manager. In the Notice of Appeal, Employer alleges errors of fact and law on the part of the Board, but no basis has been presented for a determination of the alleged errors. Pursuant to the Court's discretion as set forth in Super. Ct. Civ. R. 107(f), the decision of the Industrial Accident Board is therefore AFFIRMED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Very truly yours,

Richard F. Stokes
